

Ark and Little lights 20/2/21

Hello Parents,

We have our last video of Jonah and the whale (part 7). My Grandma (Victorian and rather severe) used to say I am only doing this because you need to learn. I'm being 'cruel to be kind'.

Well in this last part of Jonah, God appears to be 'cruel to be kind' to Jonah in order for him to learn a salutary lesson about true love. I love the fact that I can really spoil my grandchildren and leave the discipline or 'cruel to be kind' to their parents. It has taken me 60 years to learn boundaries not only for little ones but also bigger children and teenagers. Even adults need boundaries.

Cactus craft

Children love painting with their hands and using their hands for plants is great fun.

Have a good week and we will be back this year, I promise. I'll eat my hat if we're not!

Love Catherine, Ark and Little lights
