

The Ark/Little Lights 28 November 2020

Dear Parents,

Apologies for not having sent any Ark or little light videos but I have been unwell for a few weeks although making a quick recovery.

I do hope you like this new video today which shares the delights of the meaning of advent.

Over the next few weeks I hope to share the Christmas story with you as we prepare for the coming of the King.

Snow paint for a Christmas painting

I love the idea of different medium to make painting fun and toddlers love making a pattern with different sensory touch.

Materials :- Shaving Cream, glue, Peppermint extract, glitter

(obviously watch your toddler as this will not taste nice)

Begin by combining roughly equal parts of glue and shaving cream in a bowl. sprinkle in as much glitter as desired and peppermint scent for older children adds the Christmas smell. Leaving the glue in the fridge will also cause the snow to feel chilled.

I don't know about you but as Christmas is fast approaching, there is a lack of the usual business. We can't invite the usual number home anyway, we can't share the mince pies we've made or attend the Christmas parties, nativities or coffee mornings. Here is a lovely article from 'Care for the family'. Perhaps we can share a little kindness in a different way this year. A call or a card through a neighbours door.

Go careful

love

Catherine and Little lights team.
